TO HEAR WILSON IN OPEN

Peace Treaty Will be Presented to Senate Tomorrow

Washington, July 9.—The Senate made ready yesterday to receive the peace treaty from President Wilson and to take up without delay and in the open the bitterly-contested question of its ratification.

In disregard of precedent, it was voted unanimously to open the doors to the public when the President makes his address Thursday submitting the treaty and asking for its acceptance. To the same purpose plans were made by the leaders to rush the document to the printer and to circulate many thousands of copies for the information of the country.

The decision's to hear the President in open session was reached without suggestion from him, although it was understood to square with his desires. A Senate order to provide for the session was submitted by Chairman Lodge, of the Foreign Relations Committee. after he had confirmed at the White House published reports that Mr Wilson wished to appear Thursday. It was adopted without discussion and without a dissenting vote.

The order also provided that five Senators be named to receive the President on his arrival at the Capitol and to conduct him to the Senate Chamber. The Chair selected the five ranking members of the Foreign Relations Committee: Senators Lodge, Massachusetts; McCumber, North Dakota, and Borah, Idaho, Republicans, and Hitchcock, Nebraska, and Williams, Mississippi, Democrats.

GIVE PRESIDENT GRAND RECEPTION

Returns to White House After Absence of Nearly Five Months

ALLIED FLAGS WAVE

Half of the Population of the Capital City Turn Out to Greet Executive—Impressive Pageant at Postoffice.

With flags flying and half the population of the city gathered to greet him, President Wilson arrived at Union Station last night, returning to the Capital City after an absence of nearly five months.

As he stepped from the train into the flower-hung rotunda and was met by a roar of greeting from the thousands that thronged the station, the President smiled with pleasure and repeatedly raised his hat and bowed as he walked to the waiting White House car.

Pretty girls, clad in pink and carrying the flags of the allied nations, formed a double line through which he passed to his private waiting room, a second fifty girls falling into line behind him and following him to the car.

Flags were everywhere, decorating the big rotunda and carried by the thousands of Washingtonians who had accepted the invitation of the welcoming committee to meet the President.

In his waiting room the President was greeted in the name of the people of the National Capital by the three Commissioners, headed by Commissioner Brownlow, J. H. Ralston, representing the Non-Partisan League; Harry Hollohan, representing the Central Labor Union; Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, of the War Camp Community Service and other men and women of the city.

Outside the station the Navy Yard Band greeted the President and falling in line with the crowd, followed him down the avenue.

Girls from the War Risk Bureau, the National Service School and yeomen (f), were grouped around the Columbus Statue, the navy girls standing ridigly at attention as their commander-in-chief passed.

The tableau was illuminated by huge searchlights that swept across the President's path and lighted the picture.

Along the avenue to the White House the car bearing the President was greeted by flags and thousands who preferred seeing the nation's chief drive home after his long absence to greeting him at the station.

On the steps of the Postoffice Building a pageant was staged by Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest so that the President might view it on the drive to the White House.

"Columbia" and "Liberty" welcomed the President with open arms surrounded by their attendants.

NEGROES ARE CAUGHT

Officer Grover Chases Incorrigibles For Hours Before Fugitives Collapse

The juvenile darkeys who shot Russell Hawes, a fourteen year old white boy, on North West Street Monday night, are now in custody. Frank Williams, aged 19, and Chas. Henry Bird, alias Richard Bird, who says he is 14, but who would pass for eighteen or nineteen and Paul Jefferson Evans, who gave his age as 14, are now in custody.

The accused were brought before the Police Court this morning, when it was shown that the trio are pistol-toters and have been engaged in robberies for some time. The charge that the three were handling pistols Monday night and that one of the party shot young Hawes was proven by the testimony of Evans, the youngest of the trio of desperadoes.

Officer Grover, one of the youngest members of the police force, started yesterday afternoon in search of the negroes. He drew near them in the extreme southern section of the city, but the rugitives manage for some time to keep far enough away to insure their safety The officer, however, is fleet-footed, and he followed them from point to point, not giving them time to rest, until, after several hours' chase, the negroes stopped from sheer exhaustion. The officer then placed them under arrest.

Evans will be placed in the reform school after he shall have testified before the grand jury against Williams and Bird.

SOUTH IS SHOT BY NEW "COP" AS REVELERS FAIL TO HALT

Washington, D. C. July 9.—While riding down Pennsylvania avenue in an automobile in company with three of his boy friends at 3.40 o'clock this morning, Leo A. McLeod, sixteen years old, of 319 S street northeast, was shot in the back of the head by Private Henry A. Starr, of the First precinct. He died in Emergency Hospital at 7 o'clock while his father, William McLeod waited outside of the room for word of his boy.

Starr was suspended from the police force, and is under arrest at the first precinct. The three boys who were with McLeod are being detained as witnesses. They are: Giles Jones, of 38 S street northeast; Charles Stewart, of 315 S street northeast, and Albert Senior of 614 Eighth street northeast.

The automobile in which the four boys were passengers passed down Pennsylvania avenue at Thirteenth street, the police record says. According to Captain Feather of the first precinct, one of them had been drinking, and was making a lot of noise. The others, in the rear seat of the car attempted to quiet him, and he called police screaming "Help" and "Murder."

Starr, hearing the calls, signaled for the automobile to stop, thinking that a robbery was being committed but the boys did not stop. He then drew his revolver and fired, he told the officials at the precinct, at the rear tire. The bullet went wild, striking the rear cover of the automobile and hitting McLeod in the head. Only one shot was fired.

The boys in the car told the police today that they had seen no policeman try to stop them, but only a man in civilian clothes. They drove down Pennsylvania avenue as far as the Peace Monument, before it was discovered that the boy had been hit. All the while he was unconscious and lying at their side. When it was found out that the bullet had struck his head, he was rushed to Emergency Hospital, where little hope was held for his recovery.

The girl had crawled under a trip, which blocked the tracks. The engine started and she was caught. Two wheels passed over parts of her body, cutting off her limbs. She was screaming in loud, shrill notes when aid came. She had possession of her voice for the first time in her life, her parents say.

At Palermo the police have arrested 400 former convicts, who are alleged to be responsible for many of the disorders on Sunday.

BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT

The murder of Miss Frieda J. Lesser by Harry S. New in California, a day or two ago, has brought distress to Senator New, of Indiana, who is alleged to be the sire of the murderer.

The national interest in the tragedy has brought the Senator into the limelight, and unlike the late King Edward, he has not lied like a gentleman, but admits an indiscretion of thirty year sago.

The Indiana Senator has long since passed over the hill of life and is on the descent with the shadows lengthening. The rash young man who has stepped his hands in the blood of a young woman has doubtless been a thorn in the flesh of the venerable statesman many years. Now in the evening of life, while enjoying the confidence of the state of Indiana, being a member of the highest representative body in the land, the shadow of an indiscretion of nearly a third of a century ago is suddenly cast over him.

Lucretia Borgia, while in her teens, secretly ushered into this world a babe which was destined to slay her while she was at the zenith of her career as a duchess. The old play is seldom produced at present, although it imparts a practical lesson—be sure your sin will find you out.

The child is reared with no conception of his parentage. He is given the name of Gennaro. To make a long story short, he stabs his mother to death at a banquet in Venice.

In ante bellum days in Alexandria what was known as "John Price's Theatre" at the northwest corner of King and Royal streets was one of our institutions. The play of Lucretia Borgia was occasionally produced, the horrors of which are remembered by some now living.

THE FIVE HOHENZOLLERNS

True nobility shines out in the appeal of the former Kaiser's five stalwart and unwounded sons suggests a contemporary. Eitel Friedrich, August Wilhelm, Joachim and the rest stand ready to sacrifice themselves to save father from degradation. Filial piety is a virtue which has been more often honored in the breach than the observance among the Hohenzollerns; witness the relations between Frederick the Great and his father, or, for a more modern instance, William II's. treatment of both his father and mother.

It would be unkind to suggest that the letter which Eitel signs in behalf of the rest is a beau gesture, Yet is clear that the offer could not possibly be accepted. Whatever punishments may be dealt out to those who transgressed the laws of war, noe of them will be vicarious. The five brave Hohenzollern lads may not escape, of course, even if they cannot take their father's place Considering their records in the looting of chateaux, they can probably be found guilty upon charges of grand larceny.

ANOTHER EXOTIC

The English coffee house, like the English sparrow, has crossed the Atlantic, and now that the saloon is about to eb abolished in the United States, this adjunct of London hostelries is becoming an institution in America.

Coffee house were denounced by the church when they were introduced in the British capital many years ago. They continued to flourish, notwithstanding the opposition of the church, and now an English hotel without its coffee house would be a remarkable departure.

The coffee house has it is said, taken the place of the saloon dive and low cabaret in the underworld of Cleveland and other midwest cities.

Owners of coffee houses have been arrested. Some have been fined, others sent to the workhouse. Young girls held practically as slaves in these resorts have been liberated, returned to their homes or sent to reform schools.

A well dressed, expensively jeweled woman, labeled by the police of Cleveland and Detroit, "queen of the coffee house vice trust," has been arrested in the effort to break the vice ring now operating in coffee houses which have sprung up in the districts where the foreign population is heaviest. Many former saloons have ben made over into coffee houses.

Prosecutor Stanton accuses the vice ring of buying, selling and exchanging young girls, forcing them to live immorally in coffee houses.

The girls it is alleged are placed in coffee houses, in the guise of waitresses, but are compelled to lead immoral lives, dividing the profits with the owner of the coffee house to which they are assigned.

The old vice ring, which used to operate in large cities through the medium of liquor resorts, saloons, wine rooms, and vicious cabarets it is charged attempting to come back with the aid of the coffee houses.

NOW AN OCTOGENARIAN

John D. Rockefeller has just celebrated his eightieth birthday. The oil king says he hopes to reach the century mark. He also says that after having spent four score years in the world he is just beginning to live.

A thoughtful man who had passed his ninetieth milestone found himself about to pass into the unknown world. Among his last words were these: After all these years I feel that I have just learned how to live."

We are told in an age to come "there shall be more thence an infant of days, nor an old man who hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old." (Isiah lxv., 20.)

In this age the outward man perishes while the man is renewed day by day. The practical knowledge we obtain in this comparaitvely short pilgrimage may prove of inestimable blessing in the ages to come.

REWARD FOR FIEND

Authorities Still Hunting for Assailant of Three Women

Washington, July 9.—More than $400 was raised at a mass meeting in the Chevy Chase Library last night, to be applied to the present reward of $2,100 for the arrest and conviction of the negro fiend who assaulted three women here during the past week.

Representatives from Somerset were present at the meeting and explained that the Montgomery County Commissioners were behind the citizens and had put up $1,000 for the arrest of the guilty negro.

Dr. E. F. Philips, of Somerset, said that all through Maryland the people are incensed over the recent crimes upon white women, and that in his opinion, if the guilty party is apprehended by citizens of Maryland, he will not go to pail.

According to Dr. Philips, a group of white-hooded figures have been reported to be riding at night, keeping undesirables indoors and spreading the fear of justice through the community.

Belief is current in Montgomery County that the Klux Klan of reconstruction days has been revived.

Ten more suspects were caught here last night and, after being closely scrutinized by Miss Mabel Stiles, a victim of the fiend, were released. In spite of the fact that several of the culprits closely resembled the guilty negro they were able to furnish an alibi for their actions on the night of the crime.

Police here are worried over the possibility of race trouble in Washington.

GAS-STEAM ENGINE

Idea Combines Internal Combustion.

Keith Merrill, United States Vice-Consul in London, has sent to the Department of Commerce the following in reference to a new British gas-steam engine.

"The London Times reports the invention by an Englishman, of a new form of prime mover, consisting of combined internal combustion(gas or oil) and steam engine. With the ordinary gas or oil engine one of the greatest mechanical problems is the removal of the heat generated by the combustion of the fuel, and in the majority of cases this heat is lost or wasted in the sense that it is not converted into useful work.

In the new invention arrangements are made to utilize the waste heat for the generation of steam, and the piston, after being driven in one direction by gas or oil, is driven in the other by steam. By this means the inventor hopes to increase the fuel efficiency at least 20 per cent. and to increase the elasticity of the engine by storing steam in a reservoir so as to sustain for a short time a large overload, which would originally stop the engine."

WOULD CHOOSE SAUNDERS

Mecklenburg County Bar Indorses Congressman for Court Vacancy

Danville, Va., July 9.—Interest throughout the State is centered upon the chances of Representative E. W. Saunders, of Franklin, being elected to the Virginia Court of Appeals to succeed Stafford G. Whittle, of Henry, who will retire at the end of this year. Judge Whittle is president of the court. The bar of Mecklenburg county has strongly indorsed Judge Saunder's candidacy and a petition signed by every lawyer except one urged the General Assembly to name Congressman Saunders. Mecklenburg county is the largest in the Fourth Congressional district.

Larger and lesser political lights are also beginning to turn their attention to the vacancy which will be made in Congress should Judge Saunders be chosen.

J. Murray Hooker, of Patrick county, is often spoken of in this connection.

SAFEGUARDING PRESIDENT

Destroyers, Dreadnoughts, Dirigible, And Seaplanes Escort Steamer George Washington

America took no chances in guarding its Chief Executive upon his arrival yesterday from the Peace Conference.

Surrounded with a cordon of 30 destroyers, the dreadnoughts Pennsylvania and Oklahoma, a dirigible and half a dozen seaplanes, the George Washington was escorted through the narrows with her distinguished passengers at 1:30 p. m.

From the moment President Wilson stepped off the gangplank he was flanked with an impenetrable guard. The route through Hoboken was protected by 1,000 policemen, assisted by soldiers, and every house top was under surveillance.

ASIA MINOR IN REVOLT

Separate Turkish Government is Likely to be Formed

Paris, July 9.—The formation of a separate Turkish Government in Asia Mnoir bv Mustapha Kamel Pasha and Essad Pasha is indicated as a possibility in dispatches received in Peace Conference circles yesterday from Greek sources.

Kamel Pasha, who is reported to have 40,000 troops with 47 heavy guns and many machine guns, is said to have refused to comply with an order from the Government in Constantinople to return to the capital. Essad Pasha, is understood to be in Asia Minor in the territory controlled by Kamel Pasha, and, it is said, is in touch with Kamel, presumably in the hope of forming a coalition for a new government.

RIOTS SPREAD IN ITALY

Disorder and Bloodshed in Genoa, Naples, Turin And Rome Reported

Rome, July 9.—Anarchistic riots are continuing to spread through central Italy at an alarming rate and outbreaks have occurred in the north and south as well.

Geona, Naples, Turin and Rome itself have been the scenes during the last twenty-four hours of food riots, many of which were marked by bloodshed. Hundreds of shops were looted by infuriated mobs in defiance of the increasingly stringent military measures taken by the government. One death is reported from Genoa. Scores were injured in other cities.

The chamber of labor announced that a general strike would be declared unless the government imposed a 50 per cent reduction on the price of food.

A government communique issued yesterday stated that such a reduction would result in a disappearance of merchandise supplies through excessive purchases.

A special commission is attempting to obtain reasonable reduction in prices.

Ten French soldiers were killed and twenty injured in new outbreaks between the French and Italians at Fiume, according to dispatches received from that city yesterday.

BARTENDERS STRIKE

Unions Force Action to Close 2.75 Per Cent. Saloons

Philadelphia, Pa., July 9.—Union bartenders in the 400 or more saloons that had remained open in this city selling 2 3-4 per cent beer went on strike yesterday and in most instances the places where they were employed closed. The action was taken at the request of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, officials of that organization having declared that there should be full compliance with the wartime closing law.

The refusal of the bartenders to continue at work will have the effect, retailers and hotel keepers say, of producing a "bone dry" period here, which they think will arouse sufficient protest to cause the President to declare an end of wartime prohibition.

NUXATED IRON

A DRIVING FORCE BEHIND KEEN SUCCESSFUL MEN AND WOMEN

When you think of the successful men and women you know—people who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron. Nuxated Iron by enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed force and energy into the whole system. Three million people use it annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips Afflicted.

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle today, and you will see results from the right treatment. Medical advice free. Address Medical Director, 48 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As to What Cardui Has Done for Me, So As To Help Others

Watoga, W. Va.,—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then it would last two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three. I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children. Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others.

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

"DRYS" WIN IN FIRST CLASH.

Indications Are Final Vote Will be Taken Until Next Tuesday

The fight to outlaw light wines and beer was launched in the House yesterday when the "drys" succeeded in getting up the prohibition enforcement bill over the protest of the "wets" and a number of unexpected reinforcements who charged that unfair advantage was being taken of the absence of nearly half the members.

Contrary to the expectations of all the "wets" and many of the "drys" who thought it would be impossible to begin consideration of the measure before Thursday, the Rules Committee reported out a special rule making it in order for immediate consideration. The vote on the adoption of this rule, considered as a test of strength, showed the "drys" in the overwhelming majority.

Party lines were obliterated and the vote was 225 to 59, with one voting present.

The "wets" however, claim that a large number of their supporters are absent from the city and will be on hand in time to vote on the amendments they plan to offer.

TO ABOLISH WAR CENSORSHIP

Paris, July 9.—The postal and cable censorship, as applied to Germany, will be abolished with the blockade, as the result of a decision by the big five.

It was held that such censorship was really a part of the blockade and consequently should be ended at the same time.

MOB SACKS PRISON

Releases All Inmates, Guards Giving up Arms

Berlin, July 9.—A mob attacked the castle and the detention prison at Hanover Monday and released all the prisoners in the buildings. The guards, it is said, surrendered their arms without resistance. Some fighting occurred between the crowds and Government soldiers.

All attempts to arbitrate the transportation dispute in greater Berlin are running against a stubborn attitude on the part of both employers and employes. The growing impatience of the people of the city is being voiced in many meetings of protest against the continuance of the strike, but so far neither side has shown any signs of yielding.

Those Cylinders

"THIS IS A JUST PEACE"

Wilson Says its Formulation Creates a New Task for the Nation

New York, July 9.—"The formulation of peace creates a new task," said President Wilson in Carnegie Hall late yesterday afternoon. "This is a just peace," he added, "which if it can be preserved will save the world from unnecessary bloodshed. The great task will be to preserve it. I have come back with my heart full of enthusiasm, to throw my influence in with you to see that the peace is observed."

The President seemed a trifle care worn, though his eyes were bright, his cheeks tanned by the sun and wind of the Atlantic and his voice strong and clear. As he walked upon the stage his step was firm and vigorous. He smiled with pleasure at the tumultous and prolonged applause which greeted his entrance.

The President's arrival was announced by the crashing strains of "Over There," the tune which he made the keynote of his speech in the Metropolitan Opera House on the eve of his departure for Europe last March. As he was about to take his seat after the cheering had subsided, Major Scott, commander of the R-34, accompanied by General Maitland, Royal Air Force observer on the dirigible, and General Charlton, air attache of the British Embassy, were brought forward and introduced. The President smilingly shook hands with all three, while the band played "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

"He has brought back our flag, more hallowed than ever, and with all our hearts we must stand behind hm and for him." Then came brief addresses by Governor Smith and Mayor Hylan. Another outburst of cheers followed Mayor Hylan's introduction of the President. The cheering finally was drowned by the police band striking up, "Marching Through Georgia." The President, who had been delayed in reaching the hall, seemed impatient to have the preliminaries out of the way.

The lad drank the whisky Friday morning and became unconsscious shortly after. He remained in that condition all day except for a period of five minutes when he rallied, sinking into a state of coma in which he died.

THEATRES

GRAND THEATRE

The Dictator, by Richard Harding Davis which will be shown at the Grand Theatre tonight affords John Barrymore, the inimitable comedian, opulent opportunities to tickle the risibles of large and thoroughly appreciative audiences. He is as dry in his methods as he was in "The Man From Mexco."

"The Dictator," is a melodramatic comedy, and the fun of the plot emanates from the apparently serious situations in which the star finds himself. Houdni in The Master Mystery 12th Episode.

RICHMOND THEATRE

Perhaps one of the biggest names in motion pictures is that of Marguerite Clark, who, will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre in "Girls" by Clyde Fitch. Miss Clark made her debut upon the stage at an early age and was soon playing leading parts in notable stage productions. Her first screen appearance was in a version of "Wildflower," which made a tremendous impression. After that her popularity grew sensationally and she is now at the apex of her starring career.

The story is one which is delightfully suited to the talents of Miss Clark. It concerns a girl, who, having been jilted vows eteranl hatred of all men, and has formed, together with two girl companions, a man-hater's club. Her portrayal in this picture is said to be one of her best.

The new Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy, 'Love's False Faces," with Marie Prevost, Jimmy Finlayson and Charles Conklin as the featured comedians will be shown this week. It is a side splitting comedy which anyone may see with pleasure.

INGOMAR THEATRE

At the Ingomar Theatre tonight Evelyn Greeley will be shown in "The Devil's Trail," a production that is filled with sensational and thrilling scenes.

Pathe Weekly News will also be shown.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
